JOURNEY OF HOPE DINNER: FOOD AND VOLUNTEERS ARE STILL NEEDED for the dinner this Thursday, May 26th. If you have already signed up to bring food, please label with "JOH" and deliver to PMLC by 4:30 pm on Thursday. Volunteers should arrive at First United Methodist Church at 6:00 pm. Additional information can be found in the sign-up folder on the kiosk. Contact Cindy Olson (je clo@verizon.net) or Marianne Ostergren (mostergren@verizon.net) with any questions.

HELPING HANDS NEED: For close to two decades, PMLC has maintained a benevolence item called the Helping Hands Fund that assists PMLC members with emergency financial needs. This is a confidential fund maintained by the pastors that can provide short term assistance related to home or auto payments, medications, groceries, and other unforeseen circumstances that strain family budgets. No repayment is expected of assistance made. From time to time, we ask the congregation to help fund this line item, and we are once again in need of contributions. If you can make an immediate gift, please speak with Pastor Paul. Thanks for your generosity to help others in our church family!

IF YOU HAVE AN INTEREST IN TRYING ALTAR CARE for a Sunday to see if it's your cup of tea, the month of June is your opportunity! I will be the Altar Team for June and I'd love to give any prospective volunteer a sneak peek! Contact me at 214-621-0622 or lynn.thompson1@icloud.com.

SIGN UP TODAY FOR JUNE 5TH BLOOD DRIVE: We are still chasing our goal of 50 participants! One contribution can save up to three lives. If you can contribute, please sign up at the kiosk or online (www.carterbloodcare.com).
