ADULT ED:

- SCRIPTURE ENCOUNTER—OPENING THE BOOK OF FAITH:LUKE continues in Room 28.
- LIFE ENCOUNTER—PAUL OF TARSUS: THE MAN BEHIND THE LETTERS
Paul is the author of many New Testament letters. His writings have influenced Christians across denominational lines, and helped Martin Luther to see the centrality of grace in shaping Christian identity. Paul had his shortcomings, and there may be places in the scriptures with which some have disagreed. At the same time, he sought to faithfully follow Jesus Christ. God continues to speak to us through his words, helping us to know Jesus Christ and to live as his disciples. Come meet Paul through the eyes of Adam Hamilton. From now until December 13, we will be studying his materials "The Call" in Room 27. Please join us!

CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

WHAT'S HAPPENING WITH COLLEGE STUDENTS THESE DAYS? Come meet some and find out at the Lutheran Campus Ministry Trivia Challenge on November 15 at 4 p.m. at Briarwood Retreat Center. Get to know new and returning students who will be staffing the event. Bring your team of eight and your creative or ministry-themed décor and be ready for fun. This year's meal is being catered by Chef Carlos Carrasquillo. For more information, contact Pastor Celene Welch (817/269-1229 or pastor@lcmdenton.org).

CROSSROADS ROAD RALLY POSTPONEMENT: Those who signed up for the Road Rally, scheduled for Nov. 7, should already have been notified that the event has been postponed until January. Crossroads will, however, host a light luncheon following second service on Nov. 8, in Rooms 27/28, and share a brief progress update. The luncheon will provide an opportunity for old friends to connect and catch up and for new friendships to begin. A sign up sheet is available on the Crossroads table. Crossroads is an adult ministry providing opportunities for social connection, service beyond the local congregation, support of those whose life circumstances prevent their regular participation in the life and ministry of our church and spiritual avenues for continued maturation in adult faith. This ministry will most likely appeal to those of the empty nester and beyond generations.
