CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

154 PLEDGE CARDS AS OF MONDAY, NOV. 2. Please continue to bring your cards to worship. Your commitments form the foundation for our 2016 budget planning and determine how we can best do Christ's work in God's world.

ADULT ED:

- SCRIPTURE ENCOUNTER—OPENING THE BOOK OF FAITH:LUKE continues in Room 28.
- LIFE ENCOUNTER—PAUL OF TARSUS: THE MAN BEHIND THE LETTERS
Paul is the author of many New Testament letters. His writings have influenced Christians across denominational lines, and helped Martin Luther to see the centrality of grace in shaping Christian identity. Paul had his shortcomings, and there may be places in the scriptures with which some have disagreed. At the same time, he sought to faithfully follow Jesus Christ. God continues to speak to us through his words, helping us to know Jesus Christ and to live as his disciples. Come meet Paul through the eyes of Adam Hamilton. From now until December 13, we will be studying his materials "The Call" in Room 27. Please join us!

SIGN UP TODAY FOR "A CUP OF CHRISTMAS"—THE ANNUAL WINGS CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON/ORNAMENT EXCHANGE, AT THE WINGS TABLE. The event will be held on December 6th from 12:15 to 2pm. Childcare will be available. Sign-ups will be available through November 29th.

FOOD 4 KIDS—PLANO TURKEY DRIVE 2015: Thanks to PMLC's generosity with the 30th anniversary special offering, over $8,000 has already been raised to help feed Plano children and their families for Thanksgiving. For only $20, less than the cost of a meal out with your family, another family in need can receive a turkey dinner. If you would like to give more to this great cause, specially marked envelopes can be found in your pew and out in the atrium. Please return them by Nov. 16th to PMLC. Come celebrate God's generosity through the giving of PMLC by coloring a turkey out in the Atrium after worship!
